

LEAVING PRISON AND HOMELESSNESS

This advice give you practical support and information about services for securing accommodation if you are expecting to be released from prison or have recently been released from prison.

HELP FINDING HOUSING IN THE PRIVATE RENTED SECTOR

You could try to find housing in the private rented sector. Derby Homes will be able to advise you how to find out what housing is available locally and how to apply for Universal Credit/Housing Benefit to help you with your housing costs.

You might be able to get help with a deposit through:

- a private rented sector rent deposit or bond scheme
- Derby City's single discretionary allowance

APPLY FOR A COUNCIL OR HOUSING ASSOCIATION HOME

www.derbyhomefinder.org

01332 888777

If you are not already on the Housing Register you will need to apply. Be realistic about the areas you select to have a chance of being housed. Social housing is in extremely high demand across the city.

You can register on-line at: www.derbyhomefinder.org

If you need assistance in completing this form, please call/contact Housing Options by:

Email: housing.options@derby.gov.uk

Phone: 01332 888777

Housing Options, The Council House, Corporation Street, Derby, DE1 2FS

You should make us aware of any areas you cannot live within the city due to bail conditions or due to personal safety.

You need to consider as many areas as possible to improve your chances of being offered a social housing property. We can advise you of what these areas are if you haven't already been told or have forgotten.

HELP FINDING HOUSING FROM PROBATION SERVICES

Offenders serving sentences of 12 months or more are released on licence and live in the community supervised by the probation service until the end of their sentence. If you are released on licence, your probation officer can help you find accommodation, as long as you have spent a continuous period of at least twelve months in custody.

HELP WITH MONEY BEFORE YOU ARE RELEASED FROM PRISON

All prisoners are given a discharge grant paid for by the prison when they leave. This is money to help with your costs until your benefits are sorted out.

If a prison housing adviser has found you accommodation for your first night, you may be given a higher discharge grant (about an extra £50), which is paid directly to the accommodation provider.

You may also be able to get help from Derby City's single discretionary allowance. A prison adviser or other adviser may be able to help you with your application.

You could apply for help with paying for:

- essential belongings lost when you were away
- clothing
- a fridge for your new home
- help with the costs of moving into accommodation

You may be able to prepare for your release when you are in prison by saving some of your prison wages. You could consider opening a credit union account when you are in prison.

Ask at the prison for details.

HELP FROM DERBY HOMES IF YOU ARE SINGLE AND HOMELESS

If you apply to Derby Homes for housing assistance because you are homeless, we may not necessarily be legally obliged to provide you with accommodation. Our duty to you might be limited to providing you with advice and assistance and not actual accommodation.

For Derby Homes to be legally obliged to provide you with accommodation we will have to be satisfied that you are eligible; homeless; in priority need; and that you have not made yourself intentionally homeless.

Derby Homes will take into account if you have spent time in prison when deciding how to treat you, even if it has been some time since you were released.

Derby Homes will also look at whether you:

- have a mental illness
- have a learning disability or physical disability
- are under 21 and have been in care
- were in the armed forces
- are fleeing violence or threats of violence.

PRIORITY NEED FOR PRISONERS AND EX-OFFENDERS

In some circumstances, Derby Homes might decide you are in priority need because you have spent time in prison or on remand.

Derby Homes will consider whether you should be regarded as being vulnerable by virtue of the fact that you are homeless. This has a particular meaning for homelessness applications and is not the same as being labelled vulnerable in prison.

When considering your homelessness application, Derby Homes will look at:

- the length of time you spent in prison
- if any third party support is being provided to you either by the probation service, a youth offending team, or drug and alcohol team
- evidence provided by any third party (including any housing needs assessment) about your homelessness vulnerability
- the period of time since your release from prison and how successful you have been in finding your own accommodation and in keeping that accommodation
- any third party support networks such as family, friends or a probation officer
- evidence of any other vulnerability such as mental health problems, drug or alcohol misuse, or a history of having been in care
- any other factors that might have an impact on your ability to find accommodation yourself

The fact that you have been in prison does not in itself mean that Derby Homes has to treat you as being vulnerable and in priority need for accommodation. Derby Homes will need to assess the evidence before it and be satisfied that you will find it difficult to seek out and maintain accommodation for yourself compared to other people who are rendered homeless.

PRISONERS AND EX-OFFENDERS TREATED AS INTENTIONALLY HOMELESS

Derby Homes may decide that you are intentionally homeless if you were evicted from your previous home because of criminal or anti-social behaviour or because of rent arrears resulting from your time in prison.

If Derby Homes decides you are intentionally homeless, we will only offer you limited help with finding housing. If you are in priority need, you may be offered temporary accommodation for a short period of time to assist you to find your own accommodation in the private sector.

Derby Homes may take the view that you should have known that your criminal activity could have resulted in you being sent to prison, and that this could lead to the loss of your home.

Derby Homes is less likely to decide this if the loss of your home didn't directly follow on from you being sent to prison, for example, if you made an arrangement for another person to pay the rent while you were away, but that arrangement broke down.

Derby Homes could also decide that you are intentionally homeless if you gave up your tenancy because your entitlement to housing benefit ended during a period in prison.

WHAT AREA CAN YOU BE HOUSED IN IF YOU ARE HOMELESS?

When you apply to Derby Homes as homeless, we will check to see if you have a local connection with our area. You can establish a local connection, for example, by living, working, or having immediate family (usually a parent or brother or sister) in the area.

Time spent in prison in a specific area does not give you a local connection with the area where the prison is located. However, if you have no local connection with any area or if you are fleeing domestic violence, you can apply to any council in any area.

There may be restrictions placed on where you can live. For example, if an anti-social behaviour order (ASBO) says you can't go to a particular area, you may need to seek help from a different council.

High risk prisoners managed by a multi-agency public protection arrangement (MAPPA) may be required to live in certain areas.

EMERGENCY ACCOMMODATION IF YOU HAVE NO HOUSING

www.shelter.org.uk

You may need to use emergency accommodation such as a hostel, night shelter or other temporary accommodation if you have nowhere to go following your release. Hostels provide temporary accommodation. Some are direct access, which means you don't need a referral from an agency to use them. During the winter months there is also a night shelter in Derby.

In Derby, there are day centres which may be able to provide practical help for people who are homeless. They may also be able to help you find housing. Please contact Derby Homes Housing Options Centre for advice on locating the day centres in Derby.
